SELECTMEN'S MEETING

FEBRUARY 27, 2007

Present: Cora E. Stockbridge                            10:00 AM
Richard A. McCann
Robert S. Moore
Fred Welch
Craig Kleman

Chairman Stockbridge opened the meeting at 10:04AM.

WELFARE GUIDELINES

Table of contents to be done after the corrections are made.
Mr. Welch said a preamble is not required there is already one per the statute.

There was discussion on filing an electronic application. The board agreed they would like to remove this from the process.

The board discussed the various definitions.

The board agreed to have page numbers added to all the references of the different sections to make it easier to follow.

The board discussed college students receiving general assistance. They agreed to come back to this item after further review.

MOTION: Richard A. McCann                            To take a break at 11:13
Second: Cora E. Stockbridge
Unanimous

The board reconvened at 11:22AM.

The board again discussed college students. Mr. Welch said the state guidelines say they are not eligible. He said the college costs should not be figured into the determining factors. The board agreed if the student refuses full-time work they would be ineligible.

The board discussed non-citizen section. Mr. Welch suggested taking the section out completely and if an application is filed we could have legal review. Board agreed to this.

Mrs. Stockbridge asked about the review of the guidelines being done yearly. Mr. Welch said they should be done at the very least when the LGC puts out their book.
